Application for emergency matriculation fee and tuition fee deferment

for the second semester 2021

Notes for International Students

Students who satisfy all the eligibility conditions for application below may be granted deferment of payment of matriculation fee and tuition fee for the second semester 2021 until the end of February 2022.

Applicants should read these notes carefully and be sure to submit the correct documents.

Results of applications will be released in mid-January.

Submission period for applications: From Friday, 10 December to Thursday, 23 December 2021, 5pm

Eligibility for emergency matriculation fee and tuition fee deferment

for the second semester 2021

The undergraduate and graduate students who are facing unexpected financial difficulty due to COVID-19 and experiencing difficulty in paying matriculation fee or tuition fee by the prescribed date

Notice

- 1. You may apply for this application only for the reason of financially difficulty due to COVID-19.
- 2. Please be advised that we cannot stop the debit procedure from your account even if you are given the tuition deferment. As long as there is enough money in your account, the tuition will be transferred out of your account.
- 3. If your application is not granted, the due date for payment will be 28 January 2022.

Important Advice for Applicants

- 1. Applicants should read the instructions carefully.
- 2. The deferment of the payment will be cancelled if it is discovered that any of the application materials were incorrect. If you fail to provide all of the required documents, your application will not be taken into account.
