

International Education with Partner Institutions in ASEAN Countries: The Case of Architectural Education

Yuki AMAKI

Assistant Professor

Organization for International Collaboration

Meiji University

Contents

1. Internationalization of Meiji University
2. Meiji University and ASEAN project
3. International Program in Architecture and Urban Design (I-AUD)

- Founded in 1881 as “Meiji Law School” by Tatsuo Kishimoto, Kozo Miyagi, and Misao Yashiro

- The Meiji Law School based its philosophy of education on the libertarian principles of the French legal system, with "freedom and civil rights" as its guiding principles.
- At present, large, comprehensive university with 32,500 students including 1,600 international students on 4 campuses.

– Schools of Meiji University –

10 Undergraduate Schools

- Law
- Political Science and Economics
- Art and Letters
- Commerce
- Business Administration
- Information and Communication
- Global Japanese Studies
- Agriculture
- Science and Technology
- Interdisciplinary Mathematical Science

4 Professional Graduate Schools

- Law School
- Professional Accountancy
- Global Business
- Governance Studies

12 Graduate Schools

- Law
- Political Science and Economics
- Art and Letters
- Commerce
- Business Administration
- Information and Communication
- Humanities
- Global Japanese Studies
- Agriculture
- Science and Technology
- Advanced Mathematical Sciences
- Global Governance

Other School

1 Junior / Senior High School

Internationalization Process at Meiji University

2008: Selected as one of the institutions for Global Centers of Excellence Program in the area of mathematical science.

2009: Selected as one of the institutions for a 5-year government-funded Global 30 Project to increase the number of international students and to establish new English-medium educational programs.

2009: Established the Organization for International Collaboration.

2012: Selected as one of the institutions for a 5-year government-funded Go Global Japan Project to improve global educational capabilities and ASEAN Project.

2014: Selected as one of the institutions for a 10-year government-funded Top Global University Project.

263 Partner institutions in 45 countries (As of OCT 2015)

Degree programs in English

	Year of Establishment
Graduate School of Advanced Mathematical Science: Ph.D. Program	2009
Graduate School of Governance Studies English Course	2010
Graduate School of Business Administration English course in Double degree Program	2010
School of Global Japanese Studies	2011
Graduate School of Science and Technology International Program in Architecture and Urban Design	2013
Graduate School of Global Governance	2014

Meiji University ASEAN Center

Location: Bangkok in Thailand

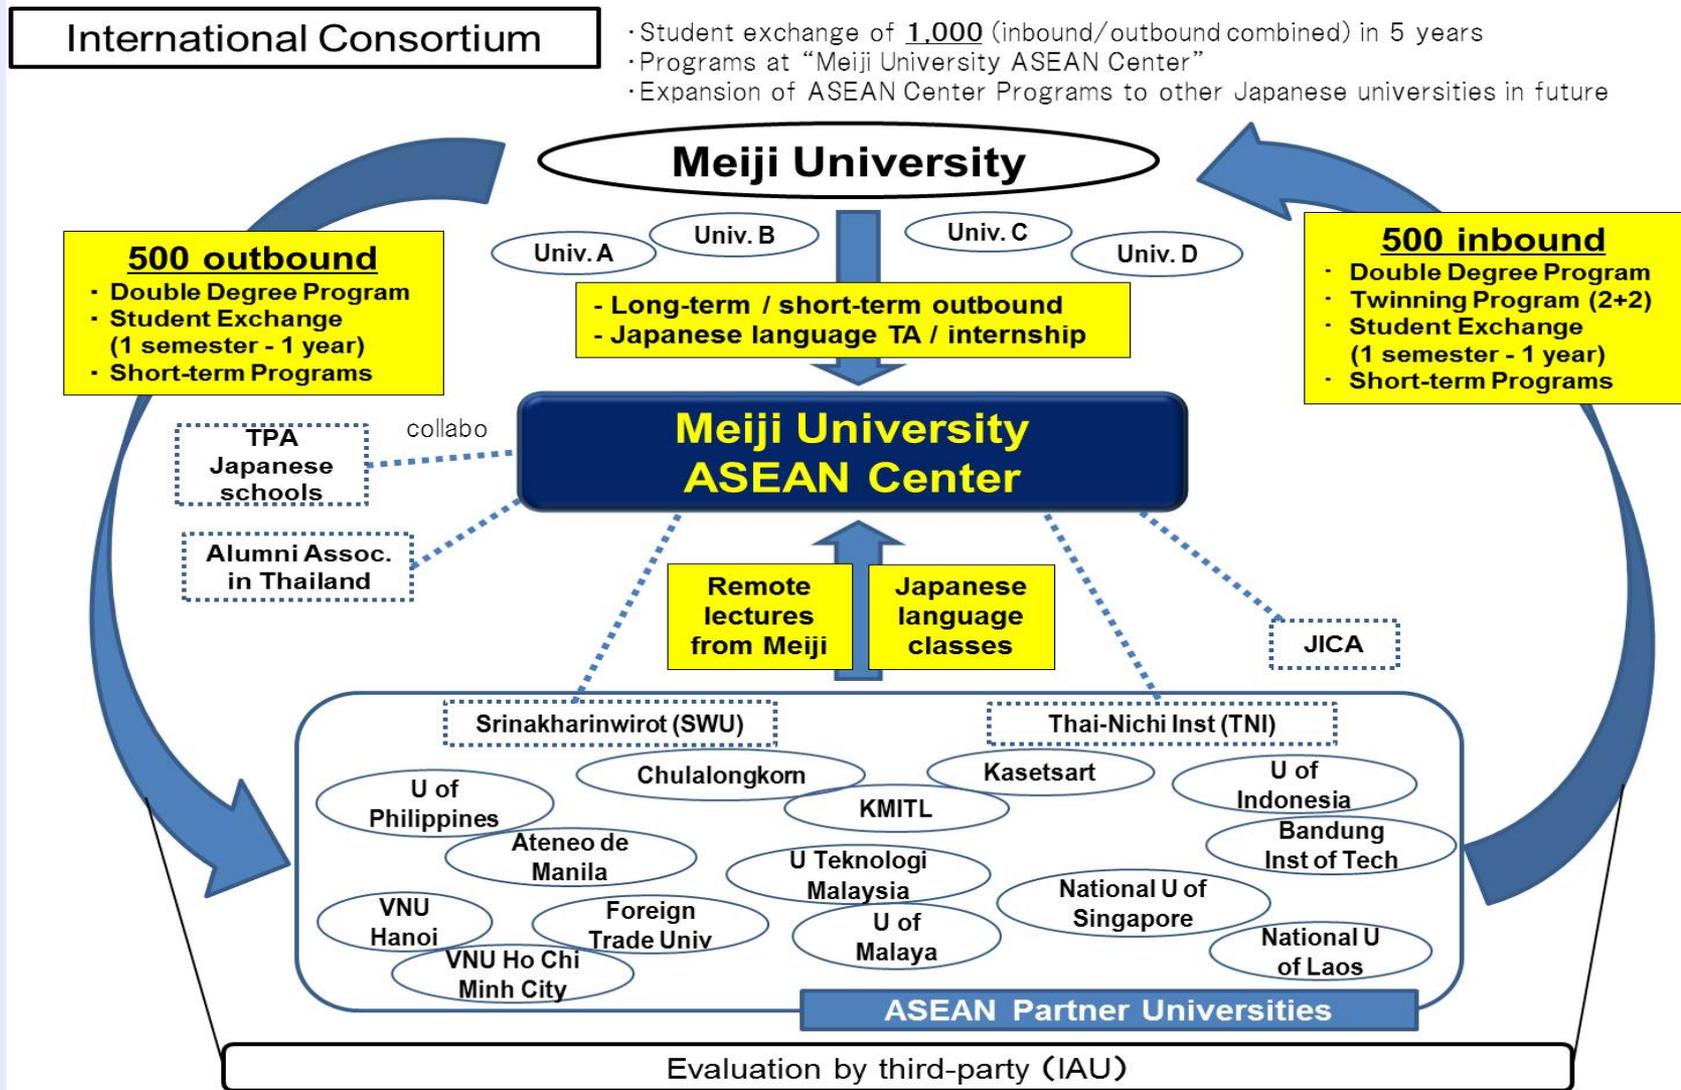

Meiji's "Active Leaders Development Program Focusing on ASEAN - Japan Literacy" was selected by MEXT (Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology) as one of the representative programs for the FY 2012-2016 Re-Inventing Japan Project.

7 min walk from MRT Phetchaburi Station

Re-Inventing Japan Project

– Support for the Formation of Collaborative Programs with ASEAN Universities –

Members of the International Educational Consortium

No.	Country	Name of University
1	Indonesia	Universitas Indonesia
2	Indonesia	Institut Teknologi Bandung
3	Laos	National University of Laos
4	Malaysia	University of Malaya
5	Malaysia	University of Technology Malaysia
6	Philippine	University of the Philippines Diliman
7	Philippine	Ateneo de Manila University
8	Singapore	National University of Singapore
9	Thailand	Chulalongkorn University
10	Thailand	Srinakharinwirot University
11	Thailand	King Mongkut's Institute of Technology Ladkrabang
12	Thailand	Kasetsart University
13	Thailand	Thai-Nichi Institute of Technology
14	Vietnam	Foreign Trade University
15	Vietnam	Vietnam National University
16	Vietnam	Vietnam National University
17	Philippine	De La Salle University

Beyond Borders in Tokyo!

International Program
in Architecture and Urban Design (I-AUD)

Graduate School of Science and Technology

- 2-year Graduate Degree Program entirely taught in English
- Explores a wide range of experiences through a studio-oriented program in Architecture and Urban Design
- Offers international experiences including workshops and internships

Program (2-year Graduate Degree Program)

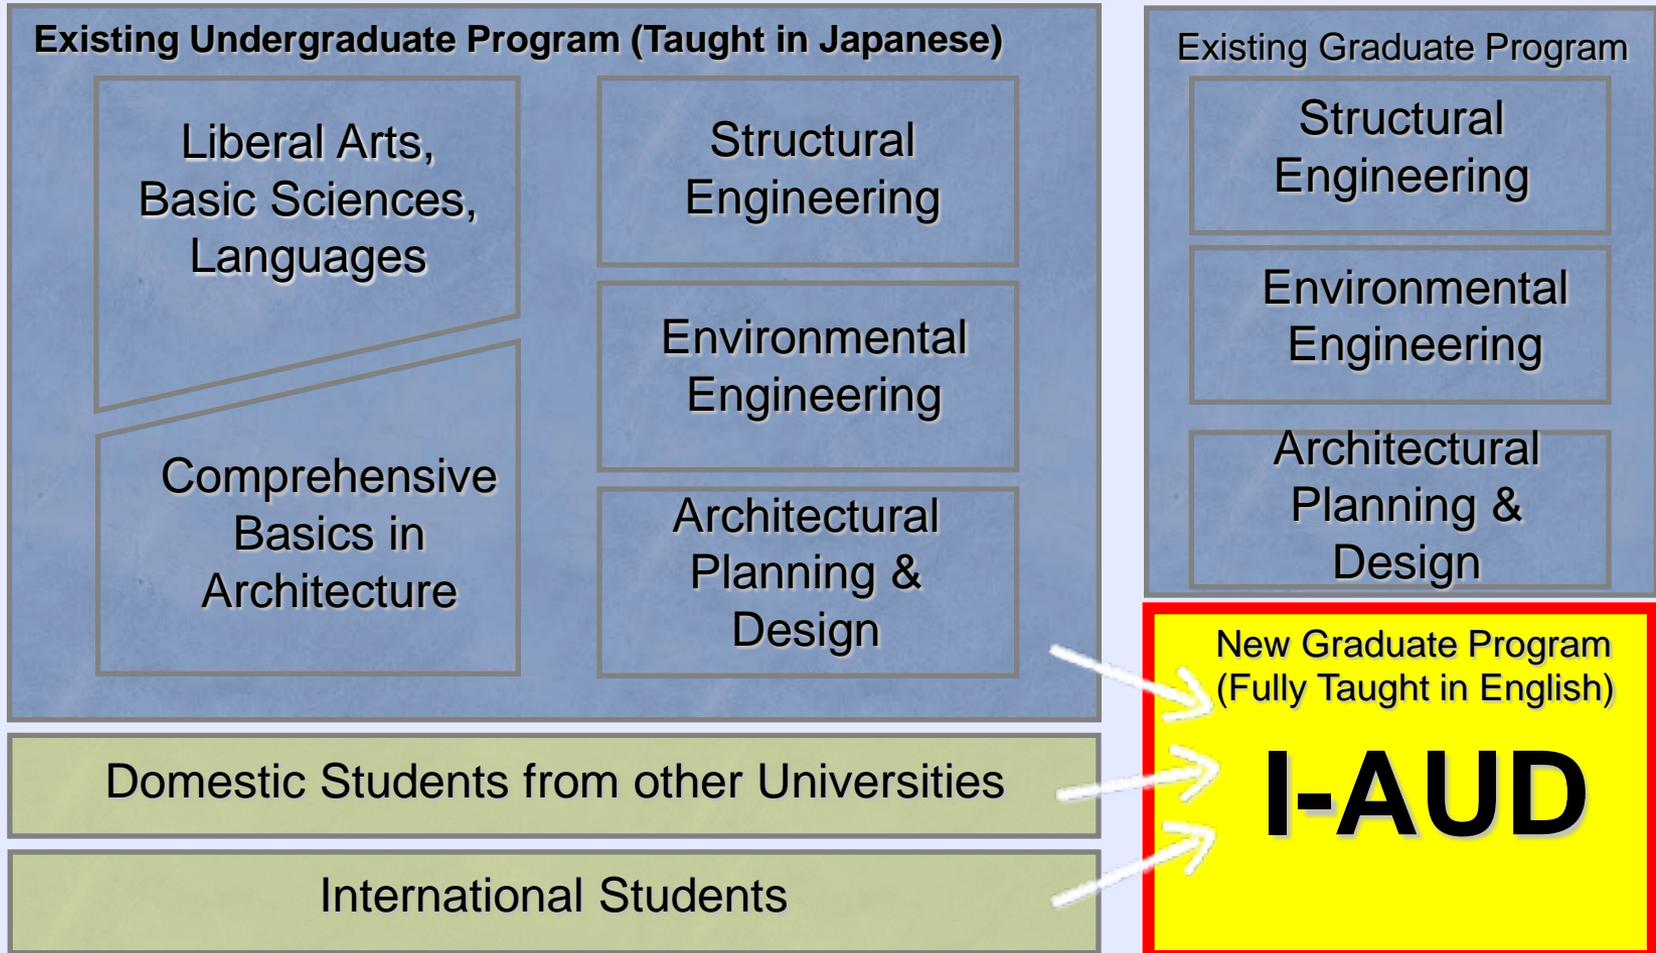

[Core of Intellectual Platform]

Freshman Sophomore Junior Senior

1st Year 2nd Year
MA MA

The 4+2 Degree Program in Architectural Design and Building Engineering

Existing Undergraduate Program (Taught in Japanese)

Liberal Arts,
Basic Sciences,
Languages

Structural
Engineering

Environmental Engineering

Comprehensive Basics in Architecture

Architectural Planning &
Design

New Graduate Program
(Fully Taught in English)

I-AUD

- The 4+2 program will be accredited by JABEE (Japanese Accreditation Board of Engineering Education).
- Obtains validation for Architectural and Architectural Engineering Education Program at B.A. and M.A. level.
- Qualifies for the Charter for Architectural Education by UNESCO-UIA (International Union of Architects)

3 students from Institut Teknologi Bandung (ITB) participated in the International Workshop in 2013.

Tentative Workshop Schedule 2015-2016
International Workshop @ Nakano Campus at Meiji University

MEIJI
UNIVERSITY

Thank you for your attention

